RETREAT SPEAKER: SUSAN CAPE

Susan has more than 20 years of ministry experience specializing in spiritual discipleship, children's ministry, and helping churches develop systems so guests can learn about and participate in congregational life. She launched and developed a large School of Ministry in Southern California, equipping thousands of people to understand how the Lord creates each person to build His kingdom. Susan is currently the Pregnancy Care Center Partnership Relations Director and connects with the community to build a culture of life. She is also pursuing her Doctorate in Strategic Leadership at Regent University. Susan lives in Fresno with her husband, Billy, and their three sons. In 2017, she and her sons joined Taekwondo as a means of embracing family fitness and health. Susan has been promoted six times already and hopes to achieve her black belt within two years.
