

Calvin Crest
Discovery Day Camp
July 25-29, 2022

Discover The World Around Us!

Discovery Day Camp is an opportunity for local kids entering 1st through 6th grades to learn valuable lessons in a beautiful Christian camp setting! Each day, this program will run from 8:30 - 2:30 under the supervision of a caring and experienced staff and will be packed full of activities incorporating singing, music, art, science, local history, games, and hiking.

Christina Melahn, Leader

Christina has served on staff at Calvin Crest for over nine years and currently leads the year-round Outdoor School and summer programs. She is a graduate of Whitworth University, holds a Wilderness First Responder certification and loves introducing students and campers to the great outdoors. She spends her free time hiking, traveling, and playing board games with friends.

At Calvin Crest, you can expect...

Intentional relationship building

Dynamic worship

Creative, biblical teaching

Fun, recreational events

Amazing, well-trained staff

Great-tasting meals

Beautiful location in the heart of the Sierra National Forest
